Thank you for taking the time to find out more about our funeral services. At the Malcolm, Deavitt & Binhammer Funeral Home, we are committed to providing detailed information required to ensure that your decisions will meet your family's needs.

We believe our community should be informed of the wide selection of services we offer to create a better understanding of the personal attention and dignified service we provide to each family who entrusts their care to us.

We have designed this booklet to provide general information regarding our many funeral services and supplies. You will see that we offer a large selection, in a full range of prices, so that all members of our community will be able to select funeral services to meet their particular needs, cultural and religious traditions and financial conditions. The average funeral costs less than many people expect and the services and supplies you select determine the total cost. The prices listed in this booklet are in effect from today's date.

For those on-line, additional information is available on our website at www.mdbfuneralhome.com For specific needs, our telephones are answered at all times and we are available at your convenience to respond to questions and assist you with any decisions. We have created these many ways for you to find out what you need to know because we realize the importance of professional services. We're confident you will feel comfortable dealing with a compassionate, well-established firm that provides you with straight forward, honest answers to any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Rental Casket System

We offer a rental casket system for use during visitation and services at the Funeral Home. The rental system features a wood product construction, environmentally compatible liner that is removed from the exterior shell after the ceremony has been completed. This liner becomes the container used to contain the remains during transport to the place of disposition, and will be used to contain the remains for the disposition. If the mode of disposition is cremation, the liner will be consumed during disposition. The outer shell may have been used before and may be used again. The price shown below includes the purchase of the liner and the rental of the outer shell.

Disbursements

Disbursements are items arranged for and possibly paid for on your behalf by us. You are expected to pay for these items at the time the contract is entered into. The following are some items that are often identified as disbursements.

Coroner's fee – this is a fee charged by the coroner for issuing a certificate that allows cremation to take place. The fee is set by the Chief Coroner for Ontario.

Clergy honorarium – this is an amount paid to the clergy for their services. In some cases the amount is set by the clergy, in others it is an amount to be determined by you.

Newspaper and/or radio notices – these are charges for death notices placed in newspapers, radio or other media outlets.

Municipal death registration fee – this is a fee charged by the local municipality to register the death. The fee is set by the municipality and may vary.

Payment and Funding

We offer the following payment and funding options:

Payment

Unless otherwise specified, payment is due on the signing of the contract. We may extend these terms to up to 30 days after signing the contract, however, in such cases a deposit equal to the taxes and the disbursements will be due at the time of contract signing. Payment may be made by cash, cheque or bank draft. Beyond the allotted time, interest will be charged from the date of contract at a rate of 1.5% per month which is equivalent to 18% per annum (APR).

For those who may require financial assistance, please consult with your funeral director regarding Last Post Fund for veterans or Social Services for civilians.

Funding

For your convenience, we offer two funding options when prepaying services or supplies. When prepaying, you pay for the services and supplies today and the money will be used to pay for the services and supplies when they are delivered at the time of need.

Trust: Your funds will be placed in trust at a financial institution, where it will accrue interest until the contract is fulfilled (when the services and supplies are delivered) or the contract is cancelled.

Insurance: You may purchase an insurance contract where the proceeds of the insurance contract will be used to pay for the services or supplies at the time they are delivered or the contract is cancelled.

Taxes: Unless otherwise indicated, taxes will be added to the prices indicated.

Malcolm, Deavitt & Binhammer Funeral Home Limited makes no claims or warranties relative to the sealing capabilities of the caskets or outer containers. The only warranties granted in conjunction with the funeral supplies are the express written warranties, if any, granted by the manufacturer. We reserve the right to alter the funeral services and supplies offered and the respective prices when necessary. At such time, new descriptions of services, supplies and prices will be made available.

Thank you for your time and interest in our funeral services and supplies. If you have any further questions please contact us. We would be pleased to be of assistance.
